IMMEDIATE PRESS RELEASE

MEMBERS OF TEWU OF TUC (GHANA) WARN OF INDUSTRIAL ACTION DUE TO DELAYED CONDITIONS OF SERVICE IMPLEMENTATION

The Teachers and Educational Workers' Union (TEWU) of TUC-(Ghana), wishes to express its utmost concern and disappointment regarding the prolonged delay in concluding, signing, and implementing the Conditions of Service for the Ghana Education Service, GES, the Ghana Library Authority, the Museums and Monuments Board, as well as the Public Technical Universities and Public Universities, despite years of review negotiations.

It is worrying that the issue regarding the various Condition of Service, of our members, have been dragging for years.

The expectation of TEWU members, was that these documents should have been implemented by now. Unfortunately, for the past four years, it has rather been back and forth with the government agencies.

With the new academic year underway, especially, the admission process for first-year students, our members cannot continue to work under uncertain Conditions of Service.

It must be reiterated that the patience of members, is running out, and we will be left with no option, but to embark on an indefinite industrial action, effective Monday, 18th November 2024, if the government fails to take immediate action to resolve all issues regarding our various Conditions -of Service, amicably.

We hope there will be prompt response from the Stakeholders, to prevent unnecessary disruptions in the education Sector.

Thank you

KING JAMES AZORTIBAH
GENERAL SECRETARY

TEACHERS AND EDUCATIONAL WORKERS' UNION TEWU OF TUC-GHANA.
